GREATEST BATTLE OF YEARS ON SATURDAY

Students of Both Colleges on Edge For Season's Supreme Test— No Odds Are Offered.

UNION PLAYERS INJURED

Time: 3 p. m.
Place: Steuben Field, Clinton.

And at the opening whistle Hamilton and Union, with teams trained by a season's battering, will plunge at each other's throats to battle for honor and glory in the supreme struggle.

Never were teams so nearly at a balance for the final game, and never were the odds so uncertain. Hamilton's powerful showing Saturday, contrasted with Union's weakness against R. P. I., sets in question any belief that Union has the advantage in the coming clash.

Hamilton has lost but one game this season, that to N. Y. U., which defeated Union 10 to 0. Union, with this exception, has also not suffered defeat. It will be the greatest game that Hamilton and Union have fought for many a year. Captain Pope expresses confidence at the prospect but says his team must go thru fire and water to stand on even footing.

Schenectady, November 8. Union's indifferent showing against R. P. I. Saturday augurs some stiff practice ahead in preparation for Hamilton. Head coach Fred T. Dawson realizes that the varsity must show marked improvement over its form of the past three weeks to give the team from Clinton an even battle.

Injuries to Union's backfield during the latter part of the season have materially slowed the offensive work of the team. Stoller, whose line plunging at fullback was such an import- is out of the game with badly sprained arm tendons and his return to form in time for Saturday's contest is dubious. Girling, the varsity star halfback, is handicapped by a fractured rib, while Roof, playing opposite Girling, has a badly wrenched

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH

Rev. Daniel A. Ferguson '71, of Hammond, N. Y., and Mrs. Ferguson, had a narrow escape from death on Sunday night when their home and the church adjoining were burned to the ground. Mrs. Ferguson was badly burned about the head and arms and also received a sprained ankle. Dr. Ferguson is the father of Ferguson '19.

—The College Dinner was postponed until Friday on account of the several house parties on the Hill. This will bring it just before the Union game.

FACULTY MEMBERS CONDEMN DEFEAT OF CONSTITUTION

Many Declare Action an Indictment of Popular Judgment

'GREAT MISTAKE,' SAYS DAVY

State Not Ready for Woman Suffrage, Is Their Opinion

Faculty members, asked their opinion on the two great measures before the people in Tuesday's election, declared that the failure of the Constitution was to be regretted, and that the time has not yet come for Woman Suffrage. To Prof. Ibbotson the loss of the proposed Constitution mean the approaching breakdown of democracy. Dr. Davenport describes it as a "blanket indictment of popular judgment."

"The vote against the Constitution was so overwhelming that it seems almost like a blanket indictment of popular judgment to say that the decision was a grave mistake," said Dr. Davenport. "But nevertheless I think it was."

"Many thousands voted against the Constitution because, in their view, it did not contain a sufficiently radical statement of the powers of government over social welfare. And yet no people can carry out programs of social welfare until it first gets control of itself; until it first writes efficiency, economy and responsibility into its fundamental law. And that is precisely what the new Constitution proposed to do. You cannot get social welfare thru government action and expenditure when everything is headed towards inefficiency, irresponsibility and bankruptcy.

"But there were other reasons than the mere unwisdom of the electorate in this particular matter. In fact, there were forty reasons at least why the Constitution was doomed to defeat. Powerful and influential groups within the state who would have been injured by some of the new provisions, appear to have spent immense sums to befuddle the mind of the voters. I cannot recall a referendum in connection with which there were so many stalking horses of prejudice and misrepresentation dragged out of their dark stables.

"There were two very natural oppositions which had serious results. First, New York City greatly desires equal representation in the legislature. Until she gets it she is likely to make short shrift with constitution makers who deny it to her. And second, the whole state had none too much confidence in the able but rather reactionary personnel of the convention, elected when the state suddenly seemed ready to fling itself along the back track. Mr. Root accomplished wonders with the very conservative human material at his disposal. But back home, where the

Dr. Cochran, of Philadelphia, Definitely Secured as Leader. Many Alumni Will Assist. Services for Eight Days.

February 13, 1916, has been set by President Gardner for the opening date of the Y. M. C. A. evangelical campaign. Dr. Joseph W. Cochran, General Secretary of the Presbyterian Board of Education, has accepted the leadership of the eight-day series of meetings and will direct all of the arangements. Dr. Cochran was unable to fill any dates this fall.

The meetings will begin on Sunday and will last thru to the following Sunday with one service daily, concluding with two on the final day. It is probable that all of the meetings will be held in the College Chapel. The speakers will be mostly Hamilton Alumni, a number of whom have been invited to come and have expressed their willingness. It is possible that David R. Porter, Student Secretary of the International Y. M. C. A., will be here for a part of the time.

The details of the week's campaign are in the hands of Dr. Cochran's secretary, Mr. Crothers, who will be here within a couple of weeks to consult with Pres. Gardner and complete arrangements. Dr. Cochran is known to many of the men here. He has been in student work for years. He spoke here two years ago.

Among the Alumni whom Pres. Gardner hopes to have as assistants in the work are Clancy D. Connell '13, New York State Secretary of the International Y. M. C. A.; Rev. Alexander Thompson '06, of Westfield, N. Y., and Rev. Robert R. Wicks '04, of Holyoke, Mass. From letters he has received from these men Gardner is confident that the coming services will prove a success. All express their willingness to assist

MINNESOTA FOR ROOT

Washington, Nov. 8.—Minnesota, the first state to hold a Presidential preference primary, has accepted the candidacy of Elihu Root for the Republican nomination seriously, so seriously, in fact, that a movement is already on foot to give him the Minnesota delegation. Root's name is being put forward as the one man with whom the Republicans have a chance to win.

Unless Senator Root should stop the use of his name, the fight in Minnesota will be between Root and Cummins, barring still another possibility —namely, the entrance into the fight of Theodore Roosevelt.

CRUCIAL GAME GIVES GOOD VICTORY

Rochester Succumbs to Steady Drive of Hamilton, 7 to 0.

GREAT POWER SHOWN

Breaking an eight-year run of defeats at the hands of the Yellow team, Hamilton defeated Rochester on Steuben Field Saturday by the score of 7-0. Hamilton scored during the first six minutes of play mainly by the use of straight football, and spent the remaining time in punting to prevent Rochester from nearing the goal line. Both goal lines were threatened in the latter part of the game. Good use was made of the forward pass, and tho the muddy field made line plays and end runs precarious, some good gains were made. Pope, Griffith and Huntsman all did fine work for Hamilton, while Harris, Wray and Ogden were Rochester's strong men.

Schwartz Plunges Over

After the first half the game became a punting duel between Schwartz and Wray, with Schwartz having the advantage. Hamilton displayed thruout more power than any time this season.

Jones fumbled the kick-off and Rochester recovered on the 23-yard line. On the third play, however, Paige intercepted a forward pass and Schwartz punted well out of danger Rochester failed to gain appreciably on three line plays and again tried a pass. Jones intercepted the ball and ran back 8 yards before being downed. Two passes were incompleted, but on the third, Schwartz to Griffith, 14 yards were gained. Pope made 2 yards thru the line; Paige circled end for 5 more, and Jones plowed thru for first down. After a 2-yard gain by Pope, Schwartz made first down around end, and on the next play Pope made 8 more in the same way. Schwartz advanced the pigskin to within 4 yards of the goal line; Pope made 2 yards thru left guard, and Schwartz charged over for the only touchdown of the game. Pope kicked the goal.

Rochester kicked off and Schwartz punted almost immediately. The Yellow warriors started to march down the field, but "Monty" Paige intercepted a pass, Schwartz punted, and tactics were again repeated. Time was called beore anything further de-

MANY PROFS. RESPOND AS FROSH & SOPHS SERENADE

Annual Hallowe'en Party Partakes of Love-Feast Nature. Prex Has Words of Encouragement, and Rip Spoke Latin.

Altho the annual Hallowe'en party of the Sophomores and Freshmen originated from the celebration held at the end of gym-showing by the Sophomores, the custom still continues. Monday evening's frolic consisted of a parade to Clinton, impromptu speeches by Prex and other Faculty members, and then singing, speech-making and refreshments in the glen.

A large representation from the two classes started from the campus at 7.30, picking up men as they went down the Hill. When they arrived at Clinton and had in vain serenaded "Bugs," they executed a few maneuvers around the square. Orations by Hutchinson '19 and Welsh '19 were heroically endured. On the return trip the crowd wasted a lot of breath in serenading "Rocks," "Eddie" Fitch, "Davy," "Bill" and "Pills" Saunders, who were later found to be absent. "Bib," "Rip" Hastings, "Bill" Shepard, "Baldy" Wood, "Brownie," and Prex did contribute remarks.

"Rip" confounded his expectant hearers by quoting Latin. Bill Shep departed from his custom in yielding to the clamors, but refused to make a speech on the ground that he wasn't used to it. Baldy Wood and Bib related some humorous anecdotes and got their meed of applause. Prex came out after considerable exercise on the part of the serenaders. He remarked that Sophomores and Freshmen ordinarily mix together about as well as oil and water, and said he was glad they had formed a truce. He added that while a Sophomore can teach a Freshman something a Freshman can also teach a Sophomore something, and thus condoned the parade marched on. Brownie was the last speaker before the "feed," and he spoke right royally.

When the fire had been lighted, everyone made a merry dash for the cider, peanuts and doughnuts, until howls were sent up for Robson '16, Donoghue '17, Jessup '18, and Ferguson '19 to expound. The purport of Robson's speech was that everyone should work hard their first years or they would "feel out of it" their Senior year.

Donoghue declared that it was quality and not quantity in a class that counted. "Be good mixers," was the advice given by Jessup. Ferguson pledged his class to do its best for Hamilton College, and he prophecied that the Class of 1919 would, with the possible exception of certain three other classes, be the best the College has ever known.

The hatchet was reported as well buried.

WARREN, '12, CARRIED TO LEMNOS AS WAR PRIZE

Was Returning from Robert College, Constantinople—Has Had Many Interesting Experiences.

Robert B. Warren '12, who since his graduation had been teaching English in Constantinople at Robert College, where many other Hamilton men have taught, has returned to this country and is studying history at Harvard. He was in Constantinople both at the time of the Balkan and at the opening of the European war. He has written a number of stories about his experiences for American magazines. He says:

"Out of the jaws of death,
Out of the mouth of hell," etc.

"That's where I come from, if you believe all that's in the papers. As a matter of fact, Constantinople is a very pleasant place to be in just now, at least for foreigners. There are little hardships like lack of fuel and lights, and a shortage of light, but these things press chiefly, of course, on the very poor of the native population. For foreigners the inconveniences are compensated by the intense interest in the situation.

"It is not so easy to leave Constantinople, as you must get three kinds of police permissions, and innumerable vise's on your passports. In fact, it takes as much red tape to get out of Constantinople now as it would take to be acquitted for murder in New York City. The censorship is strict. The traveler cannot carry out any letters, pictures or photographs, books, addresses, or papers of any kind. At the frontier the officials search you as thoroly as do the villains in "Nick Carter," when they are looking for the papers.

"We got by that, took an Italian ship at Deeaghatch, the punkest town in Europe, and sailed for Piraeus. En route we were captured by a British mine-sweeper, which rejoiced in the savage name of "Whitby Abbey," and carired as a prize of war to Lemnos, where, however, we were released, not having any contraband or suspicious characters on board. The next day we made Salonika, and here really said good-by to the Orient. Piraeus is the beginning of the West.

"Then we thought we were safe, but little did we reck of what awaited us in New York. Believe me, the New York custom officials and especially the taxi drivers can give points to the Macedonian brigand."

—Wallace B. Johnson '15 has gone to Nashville, N. C., for his health. He was in the Adirondacks during the summer, but he did not obtain much benefit.

—Turnbull '15 is attending the Law School o the University of Michigan.

—Rev. Milo R. Weidman '02 recently became pastor of the Congregational Church at Condon, Oregon.

—At Salt Lake City, Utah, Sept. 9, 1915, Rev. Zelotus W. Commerord '96 was married to Mrs. Ethel Lanor Acklen.

EDITORIAL.

For Victory Over Union!

Reports indicate that Union underwent a slump in its crucial game before the annual struggle with Hamilton; that Hamilton displayed the finest football knowledge and greatest power of the sesaon in the Rochester game. The test of Saturday is only five days off. It is not far from the truth to say that Hamilton has more than a fighting chance.

Pete Reynolds has builded well, and the team, watched and guided by his keenest eyes, should come to its own Saturday, proving itself the master of the team that a year ago found unmitigated joy in defeating the Buff and Blue 26 to 6. .

All during the season watchers on the Hill have looked toward the great closing battle, and have held in their hearts a doubt that Hamilton could produce an eleven of calibre to gore thru and thru last year's Garnet pennant aggregation.

But the season has told a varied tale, and now Hamilton is in the final round, with the absolute knowledge that her team is as good a fighting machine as Union's, and that with a fair field and good weather, we will win!

The Team can, must, will show Pete Reynolds, Union, and scores of Alumni and friends that it can retrieve last year's defeat.

The Root Bust.

Attention of the Alumni Committee which was instrumental in the presentation of the Root bust is called to the lack of a pedestal. The bust still stands where it was placed following the exercises in June on a table in the library, with a flag draped beneath it.

It was said then that the sculptor, Pietro, would come from New York to determine the proper location for it in the reading room or entrance of the library. The bust ought not to be alowed to remain in its present neglected state. A pedestal should be provided, and the statue suitably placed.

Seniors will soon begin work on the Pruyn Medal, Head Prize, and Kirkland Orations, termed "Winter Orations," which are due the first day after Christmas vacation. The awards carry Commencement appointments.

This year's subject for the Head Prize Oration, on Alexander Hamilton, is "Why the Federalists Fell?" The subject for the Pruyn Medal Oration is "Military Education in Our Colleges." The 44th Kirkland Oration, on Biblical science, is to be on "Nationalism and Christianity."

The orations, which must not be over twelve hundred words long, are judged by a committee of the Faculty consisting of Dr. Stryker, Prof. Lewis, Dr. Saunders, Prof. Super and Prof. Marsh.

COMMUNICATION

Utica, N. Y.

Editor of Hamilton Life:

You are undoubtedly receiving all kinds of suggestions about the College. A portion of the Alumni fail to see anything but gloom, but I for one maintain that some light can be seen in the distance if one is interested enough to look for it; for instance, if the shackles should be removed from our stately entrance requirements, I am sure that the Alumni would jump at the chance to take off their coats and get to work.

As you know, an effort is being made thru the medium of Williams '08 to interest more students of the secondary schools in our College and every Alumnus should enlist and help this work along, by keeping Mr. Williams in touch with his vicinity. An Alumnus who fails to help along this line during the coming year should refrain from criticism. A man forfeits his right to criticise anything or anybody conected with the administration of Hamilton College if he lazily sits tight and says, "let George do it." It is right up to the Alumni to bestir themselves in behalf of the College.

I have digressed somewhat from the idea I had in mind. I notice that an effort is being made to liven up Commencement Week. Let me suggest that we inaugurate a Masquerade Day, to take the place of Alumni Day, or rather, combine the two. The various classes, thru the medium of the permanent Secretaries, might be sounded out first, but I am sure the idea would take like wild-fire. Every class dress up with the sky as the limit; anything would go; have a real pee-rade; get away from the idea that a red band on a straw hat was enough to distinguish a class holding a reunion; fire crackers wouldn't be out of place; a fancy dress ball would not be out of order the night before.

Your interfraternity council could arrange the details and as the idea is not a new one by any means, any number of improvements might be made from year to year. It seems to would do more toward waking up Commencement Week than any other that has come to my attention. Think it over, anyway.

Yours for Hamilton,

in the campaign, and with their knowledge of Hamilton College men, will prove valuable workers.

While further plans for the campaign are hanging fire, Gardner announces that he has a line on a number of interesting speakers for Sundays during the year. Dr. Thwing, President of Northwestern Reserve; Raymond Robbins, the great Chicago social service worker; and Joel D. Hunter '03, Probation Officer for the Juvenile Court in Chicago, are on the list.

R. C. S. Drummond '01 will speak in Silliman Hall November 14, on a subject to be announced later. Drummond is known to the football men thru his coaching. A large number of men are expected to hear him at the Y. M. C. A.

delegates lived, the votes of many of them in the direction of progress were received with a wink. Undoubtedly this was unjust judgment. A good many men in that convention saw the light for the first time in their lives under Mr. Root's leadership. But whatsoever a man soweth among the folks at home, that shall he also reap.

"And then, there was no place to talk the whole thing out. I would like to see the old town meeting for the discussion of state matters legally restored all over the state of New York."

Dr. Ristine: "It is a shame that the Constitution was not approved. It may be that the whole truth of the matter is as Mr. Root said, 'It is too good to pass.' The decent voters of the state must be greatly disappointed."

"I am not in favor of Woman Suffrage. It would in this State bring in a large class of voters who would be easily influenced at the polls."

Prof. E. L. Clarke: "The Constitution was the best that has been offered to any state for a long time. Political combines, preying upon the ignorance of the masses, were responsible for its defeat."

"I am in favor of Woman Suffrage. Its defeat was due to prejudice of men who feel in their hearts, tho they will not admit it, that women are inferior."

Dr. Wood: "The defeat of the Constitution, in my opinion, was due to the fact that it was too far in advance of the times. The people could not appreciate it. It was a better constitution than any in the Union today. Both the old-style politician and the radical reformer, working against it, combined with the distrust of the masses towards the men who framed it, made possible its overwhelming defeat. One encouraging thing for the future was that the people took enough interest to vote on it."

"The defeat of Woman Suffrage is simply an indication of the present political inertia, the opposition to everything that tends to be radical."

Dr. Fitch: "The defeat of Woman Suffrage was not surprising to me. The large vote that it did get, however, is significant."

"The overwhelming defeat of the Constitution is a great deal of a puzzle. It is probably due, in a great measure, to the fact that a great number of the people were undecided, and either voted no or not at all. They were afraid of the centralization of power."

Prof. Hastings: "The defeat of the new Constitution was the inevitable result, with organized power against it. I wish it had been adopted: I think it would be a great advance in government."

"I am not in favor of Suffrage, as I do not think that the time as yet has come for it."

Prof. Ibbotson: "The defeat of the Constitution signifies to me the breakdown of democracy. It shows that people are not capable of knowing what they want and what is best for them.—Ignorance of the masses!"

Prof. Lewis: "I was sorry to see the Constitution defeated. Its defeat was probably due to the bi-partisan control of politics in New York State."

"I am against Suffrage. I may be wrong in my opinion, but to me it seems that it doubles the machinery of election without producing any discernible effect. I further believe that women at the present do not want it."

Prof. Dale: "The defeat of the Constitution shows that the masses like invisible government. The Constitution, in my opinion, would have been a great saving to the State financially. Tammany had a lot to do with its defeat."

"Suffrage I am not in favor of. I do not think the time for it has come yet."

Joy just hangs on every puff

How a pipe of "Tux" does bubble over with good cheer and sunny comfort! There's something about the mellow taste of "Tux" that stirs a smoker's soul. It gets into his inside works, sweetens his disposition, and gives him that perky, chesty feeling, like a high-stepper trotting down the avenue.

Tuxedo

The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette

Men who never smoked a pipe before are now smoking Tuxedo, because they have found that Tuxedo is the mildest tobacco made, and that it is the one tobacco that never irritates mouth, throat or nerves.

You simply cannot get another tobacco made by the "Tuxedo Process"—and that's the original of all processes for removing every trace of harshness and bite from the tobacco. It has been widely imitated, but never duplicated.

Try Tuxedo for a week, and you'll get acquainted with the sweetest, mildest, mellowest smoke in the world.

Try-Outs For Charlatans Soon

Cast Calls for Eleven Thespians—Preliminary Parts Assigned—Much Competition.

Travers Gladwin, a young New York millionaire; Alfred Wilson, a gentleman burglar; Watkins, Gladwin's butler and Wilson's accomplice; Helen Burton, a young society girl; Sadie Small, her friend; Mrs. Burton, Helen's aunt; Michael Phelan, "Officer 666"; Bataeto, Gladwin's Jap servant; Police Captain Stone; Whitney Barnes, Gladwin's friend; Kearney, plain-clothes man.

These are the cast positions for "Officer 666," for which President Robson of the Charlatans will call try-outs this week. Forty men have responded to his summons for candidates, practically all classes being represented, and indications are that keen. The date for the trials has not yet been set, but they are expected to take place within a day or two. Parts have been given out for the trials.

The plot of the play, as sketched last week, offers excellent dramatic oportunity for college acting, and with the coaching of Harriet Duke should prove an unusually meritorious production. Some material from last year's cast is available, McMillan, Calkins, Pope and Banks having held positions on the cast of "Believe Me, Xantippe.". Some of the new candidates have had experience at amateur theatricals.

JUNIOR-SOPH DEBATE

1917 Challenegs Sophs, and Debate Will Probably be Held

With the refusal of the Seniors to participate in an Interclass Debate, the Juniors have challenged the bat. Altho the Sophs have taken no class action yet, the debate will probably be held, as five or six of the underclassmen have already signified their intention of trying out. Prof. Lewis is in favor of it and the Debate Council will no doubt approve it.

Prof. Lewis has not entirely given up the hope of arranging a Triangular Debate between the three upperclasses. The debates must be held before the Christmas vacation.

CHESS TOURNAMENT

Twelve men have joined the Chess Club and at the first meeting last week, it was decided to start a tournament immediately, in which all the members will compete. The three highest men will represent the club in all its regular matches. The list of entries wil be posted in Chapel this week. President Saunders plans to schedule several matches among members of the Faculty, and later in the winter to have an intercollegiate match with some nearby college. Mr. Watson, of Clinton, who is an expert chessp layer, will come to the Hill soon and give the club some hints as to the finer points of the game.

STUDENTS PREPARING WITH SONGS AND YELLS FOR FINAL GAME

"Cheering Practice every night before the big game," is the exhortation of Cheer Leaders Getman and Robson. Student Spirit, the intangible factor which has featured in more than one Hamilton victory, is rising fast. The following parodies will be drilled along with several new yells to out-shout the Union cohorts:

Tune: "My Little Girl."
—Getman '16

Oh Buff and Blue, we're all behind you,
And we know you'll win today.
You're going to wallop poor old Union—
That's why we are so gay (rah! rah)
Your line is strong; your backs are fast, boys;
You're aggressive as can be.
Fight on hard, boys, smash up Union,
And you'll win the victory!

Tune: "Down in Bom-Bombay."
—Roberts '18

Fight, fight hard today,
Union comes this way;
Rush right down the field,
Never, never yield.
One more touchdown wins the game
—Rah! Rah!
Backs, you grab the ball!
Line, you hold, that's all!
Shove that ball for ten yards more,
Buff and Blue has got to score.
Fight for Hamilton!

Here is the probable line-up as the teams will face each other at the opening whistle:

HAMILTON		UNION
Griffith	Right End	Hunt
Emeny	Right Tackle	Jenkins (Capt)
Ogilvie	Right Guard.	DuBois
Dayton	Center.	Gardner
McLean	Left Guard.	Price
Huntsman	Left Tackle.	Hay
M. Gow	Left End.	Moyniham
Pope	Right Halfback.	Girling
Schwartz	Fullback.	Rosencrans
Paige	Quarterback.	Goff

shoulder. The varsity line has also lost much of its early season strength thru injury. Avila, the fast Freshman end, was carried from the field during Saturday's game with a dislocated hip, and Jackson, who gained a permanent place at tackle by his 80-yard run from a fumble in last year's R. P. I. game, is off the squad for the remainder of the season owing to scholarship restriction.

However, in spite of the poor condition of the regulars, Coach Dawson is confident that he will be able to show a strong front against Hamilton this week. Much promising material is waiting in the scrub line-up and eager to be given a chance to fill the vacant places.

The entire student body accompanied by the university band, will journey by special train to Hamilton to witness the game.

—John W. Bratton, Brooklyn, has been elected manager of the Freshman football team.

—John D. Henderson '08 is with the Detroit Branch of the Travellers' Insurance Company, Detroit, Mich.

—Dr. Clarence M. Trippe, of Charlotte, N. C., is studying at Columbia for a year.

CRUCIAL GAME A VICTORY

The second quarter showed an exchange of punts in which Schwartz had the advantage over Wray. Hamilton saved herself from the Rochester advance several times by intercepting passes. The half ended with the ball in the center of the field.

In the second half Hamilton stuck to her punting tactics, and Rochester continued to pass with some success. One pass to Ogden netted 40 yards for the Yellow, and brought the ball far into Buff and Blue territory. But on the next play Wray passed over the goal line and it was Hamilton's ball on the 20-yard line. After three line plays, Schwartz again punted, just as time was called for the third quarter.

In the fourth period Hamilton made a desperate attack on the Rochester line, and might have scored after a 30-yard gain around right end by Pope, had not Paige slipped on the next play and lost 8 yards. A pass was incompleted, and Paige punted over the line. Time was called ofr the final quarter after the ball had several times zigzagged back and forth thru the air.

The line-up: Hamilton: re, Griffith; rt, Emeny; rg, Ogilvie; c, Dayton; lg, McLean; lt, Huntsman; le, M. Gow; lhb, Jones; rhb, Pope; fb, Schwartz; q, Paige. Rochester: re, Gillette; rt, Lovejoy; rg, Whitney; c, Scheibel; lg, Somers; lt, Hummel; le, Ogden; lhb, Crouch; rhb, Tuttle; fb, Wray; q, Harris.

Referee, A. T. Risley, Colgate; umpire, D. H. Wadkeys, Syracuse; head linesman, C. A. Wright. Substitutes, Hamilton, Bristol or Paige, Paige for Bristol; W. Gow for M. Gow. Rochester, Thomas for Somers; Seitz for Salmon, Salmon for Gillette; Evans for Harris; Avery for Tuttle; McKelvie for Crouch.

FROSH-SOPH FOOTBALL

Saturday, November 30, Steuben Field, will see the last o fthis season's football games, when Sophs meet Frosh. The leading light of '18s team wil lbe Schwartz, varsity fullback. 1919 have already elected elected McLean as their captain.. The Sophs expect to win because of their greater number of practiced men, but the Frosh have ample material to put up a good fight.

"BUG" THOMPSON COMING

Manager Nichols has sent out an urgent call for Alumni coaches to assist "Pete" Reynolds during the rush of preparation for the Union game. He has secured "Bug" Thompson '06, Don Sidle '11, and Drummond '12, so far, and expects to hear from others. The coaches will be on the field every day this week. "Bug" Thompson is known as the originator of the "Sam Hill" yell of exhortation, and a great inducer of "pep; Sidle as Captain of the Team, and former Coach is a valuable asset, and Drummond has more than once shown his loyalty by returning for the final session before Union.
